Open the Door to New Property Sales

It's home buying season, and property sales are competitive. Offer your customers an affordable, dynamic alternative to plain property brochures. With ultra-thin credit card style USB flash drives, you can advertise on the outside and load up the inside with tons of useful information, from property details and photos to loan documents.

These compact cards offer a variety of uses, including:

- Interactive business cards
- A place to showcase listings and property inventory
- Storage or transmission of mortgage and/or financial services documents
- Proposal delivery tool
- A simple way to store closing documents
